The Textile Museum Fall Symposium 2010 Scholarship Application

The Textile Museum is pleased to offer 10 scholarships for this year's annual Fall Symposium: Tying the Rainbow: Reexamining Central Asian Ikats, October 15-17, 2010.

Drawing inspiration from the Textile Museum's fall exhibition, Colors of the Oasis: Central Asian Ikats, this weekend symposium will celebrate the unparalleled tradition of Central Asian ikats past and present. Six scholars from around the world will shed light on both the tradition and contemporary revival of Central Asian ikat dyeing.

Undergraduate or graduate students in a textile-related course of study are invited to apply. The scholarship will cover the cost of the registration, and is not a cash award. Following the symposium, the recipients will be asked to write a brief report on the weekend's highlights, which may appear in a Textile Museum publication or online.

To apply, submit:

1. Completed application form (on the following page)
2. A paragraph (maximum 250 words) outlining how participating to the The Textile Museum's Annual Fall Symposium would relate to and benefit your education, chosen career path and professional goals
3. A resume (2 pages maximum)

Scholarship submission will be reviewed by The Textile Museum Symposium Awards Committee.

Deadline Extended: COB, Monday September 20, 2010

Applications can be emailed to info@textilemuseum.org with "Symposium Scholarship" in the subject line, faxed to (202) 483-0994 or mailed to The Textile Museum, Attn: Tom Goehner, 2320 S St. NW, Washington, DC 20008. Scholarship recipients will be notified by September 24, 2010.
